

A diagram of a rectangular sheet divided into two equal halves by a vertical line. The sheet is bounded by a light blue outer border and a light gray inner border. A vertical gray line runs down the center, with a '3mm' label indicating its thickness. Two horizontal dashed magenta lines are positioned near the top and bottom edges. The top distance between these lines is labeled '243mm'. The bottom distance between these lines is split into two '120mm' segments, one on each side of the vertical line. The left half of the sheet is labeled '04' and the right half is labeled '01' in large magenta font.
